

Second conditional - exercise 5

<https://www.e-grammar.org/conditional-2-exercises-pdf/>

Key with answers

Exercise 5

I wouldn't go there if I were you.

Suppose we had to travel to Paris, we'd catch an express train.

Would you admit to a crime if you didn't commit it?

Jim would be happier if you did not tell him about it.

If you won this match, would you win the tournament?

We should take some coins in case we needed a trolley in the shop.

Would we go to the beach if it were cloudy?

We wouldn't mind your marriage on condition that you got married in church.

Suppose I wanted to renovate the house, would you give me a hand?

What would you do if he didn't give you the money back?